Building Scalable, Production-Ready Apps | 5+ Years

Summary

Senior Mobile Engineer with 5+ years building scalable, production-ready applications across Flutter and iOS platforms. I've led mobile engineering at health-tech and logistics startups, shipping features, owning architecture, and collaborating cross-functionally to turn product ideas into polished user experiences. I specialize in Flutter, SwiftUI, Python and Go, with deep experience in clean architecture, state management, backend integration, and CI/CD pipelines using Codemagic, Firebase, and GitHub Actions. I care about code quality, but I care more about outcomes; apps that work, perform, and users actually love.
